

I like the fact that in Indiana I'm not harassed by un wanted phone call from sales people. The peace of my home was invaded far to often before Indiana passed their law. It would be wrong to change it against the clear will of the people of Indiana.